THE FIREMEN.

PERLING AMONG THEM.

Owing to the late hour on Saturday that the Comptroller sent word to the firemen that he would pay them their salaries at his office only 240 received their money, and these consisted of the First battalion, under command of Engineer Roe; the Second battalion, Engineer Bonner; Third battalion, Engineer King, and the Fourth battalion, Engineer Nash. The other six battaltons will have to hold over until to-morrow. Thus over 500 men are still without money to-day. The companies that received their salaries are all those lying south of Christopher street on the west side, and south of Houston street on the east side. A detail of six men were sent at a time from each company, and it was near midnight before all of them received their salaries. The paying of the firemen is due entirely to the untiring efforts of Commissioner Vincent C. King, who was determined that if there were any possibility to get the money for the men they should have it. Accordingly, on Thursday atternoon, Commissioner King waited on Mayor Wickeam and beseeched him to do something for the relief of the men. Mayor Wickham said he would be only too happy to do so, but he could see no way only to submit to Comptroller Green's whims.

"Well," said Commissioner King, "General Sha-

"Well," said Commissioner King, "General Shaler, Commissioner Galway and others never signed the pay rolls or checks; they stamped their names, and why can't you do it."

The Mayor at once consented to the stamping process, and soon one of his chief cierks was set to work, and finished his task at a little before seven in the evening. Commissioner King waited thi he saw the last check stamped, and then left to notify the men that they would be paid the next day.

A visit among the fregmen yet unpaid disclosed the fact that nine out of every twelve in each company side with the Mayor on the question of signing of the warrants, but many remarked that the dies signed them under protest.

had ne signed them under protest. Considerable seeing was also expressed against the President of the Board of Fire Commissioners. Mr. Ferley, that he had not raised the money and

Mr. Ferley, that he had not raised the money and advanced it to the men, it being well known that he is backed by all ethe insurance companies in the city, and could command at a moment's notice any favor ne desired. It is a well known fact that the late Philip W. Engs, waen a commissioner, advanced the pay to the men, no less than three months in succession, and they are surprised that Mr. Perley did not take interest enough in the men to do the same, but the lorce all seemed fully satisfied that Mr. Perley was playing into the hands of the Comptroller, and whiting to aid in any way, to place the Major in a faise position. troiler, and whing to aid in any way, to place the Mayor in a faise position.

The Herald reporter meeting several of the members of an east side company was accounted by one of the men, who remarked, "I say, do you know if the Mayor has got through with his mark-by one of the men, who remarked, "I say, do you know if the Mayor has got through with his marking plate."

"I don't believe he can write," said another; "out I think he might be able to make his mark; ether fellows do it."

At an enguae house in the Sixth ward the men were all taking over their pay. It seems that Come of Battalion Bonner had fold the men that if they were not paid before three o'clock on Saturday afternoon that he would advance them all the money they wanted for the Fourth.

That there is a great deal or poverty among the men cannot be denied. One of the force stated that he had been unable to send his children to school for over four weeks because he could not spurchase shoes for them. Another said that his wife had been confined to a bed of sickness for over three months, and that the poor woman has had to suffer for the want of medicines ordered by the doctor and other necessaries that he could not get because he was unable to obtain the money.

in an uptown company a man who said he gave In an uptown company a man who said he gave $100 a few months ago to get on the force remarked that the money had to be paid in cash; teat he succeeded in borrowing it, and gave four notes for $25 each. Two of these notes have gone by default, owing to his not receiving his pay, and the moider has commenced suit against his securities.

the soider has commenced suit against his securities.

A member of a hook and ladder company on being assed how the members of his company got along without funds said:

"You see that Duich grocer ever the way, he puts up for all of us, but there is no knowing how we are going to pay him, for I can tell you when you have got to live on tick they can put it up on you, and if any one knows how to play that game it is a Duichman. Come over and see what the Duichman says of us."

The reporter crossed the street with the fireman and inquired of the proprietor if he was trusting the firemen.

man and inquired of the proprietor if he was trusting the firemen.

"Oh, yes, I trust, but they no get no money. I will have to bust up soon if they don't pay. Them is mard feilows."

REPORTER—But you will get your money sure?
The DUTCHMAN—Yes, next New Year's. I go down to the Commissions; they teil me to get out. I have from 975 to 5100 trust to each of them feilows over the way—in all about $500. I cannot stand it. Then they want to corrow money; I lend them, and they say next week we pay; but no pay comes. They all the time talk about a man green and the Mayor, just as it I con't know them two feilows no pay the firemen. Its first Green and then Wickham, then its Wickham and next Green; but its all humong, the Commissions is the men to pay, and i be no fooled no longer.

THE COURT STENOGRAPHERS.

NEW YORK, July 1, 1875. TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD :-

In reply to a letter from "A Member of the Bar," complaining of the delay in procuring copies of the judges' charges, will you me to say that having had the honor of hilling the me to say that having had the honor of filling the position of official stenographer in one of the Courts of Record for the past seventeen years, I can justly say that, with lew exceptions, the judges never see their charges as reported until the case is presented to them "for settlement;" and in all instances where a transcript is revised by the judges the corrected copy is furnished to Lie counsel. As to the judges retaining "the original notes," It is apparent that they have enough to occupy their time instead of endeavoring to decipaer the difficult characters of stenography, phonography or caligraphy. With respect
